Victoria, I think they are not interested in the truth and are twisting everything.

I also suspected and this is some confirmation that a large part of this is not about Orinda at all but is a calculated strategy to target Amy as MTC chair. She seems to be handling this well in public and, I hope, in private as well.

Thanks; I wonder if the OrindaWatch folks really believe that the Housing Element is 178 pages of changes....at least those in attendance last Tuesday actually heard that the "change" consists of zoning the Santa Maria site at 20 units to the acre for affordable housing.

Best--Victoria

Amy: LOL!

Below is a comment from Herb Brown sent to OrindaVision Board member Ian Baird.

Ian:

I didn't write the article in the Patch. I think the point of the article is that the 178 pages of changes to the General Plan go beyond the requirements of MTC and ABAG.

I know you have been a backer of Orinda Vision for a long time. What is not clear to me is if Orinda Vision realizes the Agenda of Amy Worth, MTC and ABAG is communist social engineering pure and simple.
